Dear Life for Relief and Development,

I am honored to congratulate Life for Relief and Development on celebrating their 25th anniversary. Thank you for 25 years of serving the community.

Life for Relief and Development is among the largest and oldest U.S.-founded Arab American humanitarian relief and development organization in the United States. Their important work focusing on providing humanitarian aid to people regardless of race, gender, religion or cultural background will have an impact for years to come.

I am pleased to greet everyone in attendance and offer my best wishes for an enjoyable afternoon.

Warm Regards,
